SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

Programme as on 23 November 2026 — subject to change

Under the scientific auspices of the European Society of Surgery · Endorsed by the Association of Minimal Access Surgeons of India (AMASI), the Association of Robotic & Innovative Surgeons (ARIS), the AWR Surgeons' Community (AWRSC), the Obesity & Metabolic Surgery Society of India (OSSI) and the Hernia Society of India (HSI)

Faculty participation and session timings are subject to confirmation. Live and as-live operative sessions follow the National Medical Commission's framework for live surgery; the transmitting centres and the procedures shown are those of the Organising Chairman's live-surgery plan and are confirmed with the centres; the operating surgeons are named as they confirm. Hall A (Sushruta Plenary Hall) carries two screens in its live sessions, each a live or as-live feed from the centre named. Hall B (Moynihan Hall) is a silent hall with four screens and headset audio: four specialty tracks, and in the live hours four live feeds. Hall C (Billroth Hall) carries the workshops and, in its free hours, the sessions shown; Hall D (Kocher Hall) is the e-poster display. The AMASI MMAS HPB course and the Jaipur Surgical Festival, held alongside the Congress, are published separately.
